

Security Check

Section 1: Dialogue

Please read the following dialogue between a Tom, Jessica, and the Security officer at the airport.

Tom: Wow, security sure is tight.

Jessica: Good thing we have a lot of time before departure.

Security Officer: Ok everyone. Before you pass through the metal detector, please take your laptops out of your bags. Take your shoes off, and coats off. Any items in your pockets, like your wallet, keys, coins, pens. And put them all on a tray.

Tom: Gosh. I always seem to set off these metal detectors.

Security Officer: Please step through again sir. Remember to take out your keys, or coins. Do you have any items in your pocket?

Tom: I don't think so. Oh wait, I forgot to take off my belt, it has a metal buckle.

Security Officer: Excuse me, whose bag is this?

Jessica: That would be mine.

Security Officer: These toiletries should be enclosed in a zip-lock bag.

Jessica: Sorry, I wasn't aware.

Security Officer: Please be more careful next time. And I am sorry, but this bottle of lotion is too large.

Jessica: Really?

Security Officer: The allowance is only up to 3 ounces.

Jessica: What should I do?

Security Officer: I am sorry but you'll have to leave it here.

Jessica: Ok.
