

How do I express reservation?

- I have some reservations
I have some reservations. Isn't it too much expensive?
- Maybe we should reflect
Maybe we should reflect more of this later.
- I'm worried
Honestly speaking, I'm worried about this step because it's very risky.
- I can't help
I can't help thinking that success might be found overseas.
- I'd like to express my doubts
I'd like to express my doubts. You don't even know your company's vision!

How do I give instructions to start?

- Before beginning
Before beginning let's prepare ourselves for this long meeting.
- The first step
The first step is to learn from our own mistakes.
- I would start by
I would start by reading a quote by C.S. Lewis.
- We'll set off
We'll set off by occupying the front rows.
- To begin with
To begin with, formulate a new marketing strategy.

How do I give instructions to continue?

- After that
Maybe after that you can proceed with the exam.
- The following stage
The following stage is to back up the important files.
- The next thing
The next thing shall be identifying assets from liabilities.
- Once you've
Once you've finish Chapter I you can answer the chapter test.
- When that is over
When the presentation is over please be reminded of your next meeting.